Dear Parents/Guardians:

Please join me and the Holy Spirit School Staff in welcoming the new teaching staff members at Holy Spirit School:

- Mrs. Amanda Bower (Kindergarten)
- Mrs. Mary Harrington (Grade 3)
- Mrs. Brielle Janota (Grade 5)
- Mr. Paul Hirsch (Grade 6)
- Mr. Alexander Ferenc (Computers)

Mrs. Amanda Bower

Mrs. Bower is a qualified teaching professional who comes to Holy Spirit School with some ten years in the North Arlington School District as an education professional. She is a Dean's List/Cum Laude graduate of Montclair State University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree. Aside from her successful experience as an education professional, Mrs. Bower has also served as a long-term substitute, paraprofessional, and as the Head Teacher The New Bairn School and Learning Express Preschool.

Mrs. Mary Harrington

Mrs. Harrington has earned her Master of Arts degree from Montclair State University, and her Bachelor of Arts degree from Kean University. She is a qualified teaching professional who has professional experience spans some twenty years. Aside from her successful experience as an education professional, Mrs. Harrington has also served as a class parent, Girl Scout Leader, home instructor, and as a supervisor at the Camp Fatima of New Jersey Summer Camp.

Mrs. Brielle Janota

Mrs. Janota has earned her Bachelor of Science degree from Montclair State University, and her Master of Arts degree from New York University. She is a qualified teaching professional who comes to Holy Spirit School with Catholic School teaching experience. Aside from her work as an education professional, Mrs. Janota has also served as a CCD teacher; and as an administrator at Stevens Institute of Technology, Bank of America, and JP Morgan Chase.

Mr. Paul Hirsch

Little need be written with regard to Mr. Hirsch as he has been a vital and exemplary teacher/technology integration specialist at Holy Spirit School since the 2016-17 school year. Mr. Hirsch is a qualified teacher who has earned a Master of Arts degree in Curriculum and Instructional Design from Caldwell University. Along with his work as a 6th grade teacher, Mr. Hirsch will still serve as Holy Spirit School's technology integration specialist, and he will work with the new computer teacher to ensure that instruction in computer classes continues to be an enriching experience for the student we serve.

Mr. Alexander Ferenc

Mr. Ferenc is a qualified teacher who has earned – as a Dean's List student – a Bachelor of Arts degree from Kean University. He has served as a long-term substitute teaching position in the Hamilton NJ School District, and has field experience gained in the Central Regional and Toms River School Districts. Also he has served as a substitute teacher and paraprofessional in the Lacey Township School District. He also works as a coach for Special Olympics events. Mr. Ferenc is a member of the Phi Alpha Theta and Lambda Alpha Sigma Honor Societies.
